ferred with considerably and the line cannot be opened for some time yet for the resumption of freight service and Mr. Schlacks states that it will be July 15 or August 1 before the through passenger train service can be put on between Salt Lake and San Francisco. The car building promise to deliver the new equipment by June 30. While here Mr. Schlacks and Mr. Levey carefully inspected the new union station.

C. M. Temple Returns AS CITY TICKET AGENT

C. M. Temple, for a long time assistant city ticket agent of the Salt Lake Route, and now agent at Milford, will return May 23 as city ticket agent. He is very popular with all the railroad men and with the public. Since the washout City Passenger Agent C. H. Cutting has been looking after the work of the ticket office.

MAROOINED THROUGH TRAIN ARRIVES HERE ON TUESDAY

The marooned train of the Salt Lake Route was moved out of the washout Monday morning and is due in this city Tuesday morning. This is the train that left Los Angeles on December 31 last and got caught in the storm. The Pullman equipment will be sent to Chicago for overhauling and cleaning after its long stay in the canyon.

Larson Gets Beaver Line.

Harry A. Larson has purchased the Utah Transportation company. This is the automobile line operating between Milford and Minersville, Adamsville and Beaver and which has been doing a good business. Larson was in the field first, however, and managed to hold a goodly share of the business owing to his friends and personal popularity. The Smiths, who originated the company, sold out to the Tanners, but the latter have sold out to Larson, who will now operate all four cars.

PACIFIC OFFICIALS LEAVE FOR SAN FRANCISCO

Presidents Schlacks and Levey of Western Pacific left for San Francisco Monday after a visit with local officials. The work of re-opening the line has been interrupted.

The board went to the scene of the disaster and looked over the ground. A movement is on foot to have the dealers in powder locate their magazines outside the city limits and the railroads were also carefully considered and the location of the tracks that would prove suitable and safe in every way. The findings of the board will not be made public until later.

A touch of real humor developed at the hearing. A colored man who had witnessed the fire and from a distance saw the explosion, was being examined.

"What time did you notice the fire?" he was asked.

"About 12 o'clock, sah," he replied.

"And what time did the explosion take place?"

"About 12:30, sah."

"And where were you then?"

"About a mile and a half north of there, sah, and still running."

Gould Lines Earnings.

For the first nine months ended March 31 last, the Gould lines, including the Washah, Missouri Pacific and Denver & Rio Grande, or that part of the Gould system extending from Buffalo to Salt Lake City, showed an aggregate increase in gross earnings of $2,585,000, or 15.6 per cent over the corresponding nine months of last year. Net for the three roads showed an increase of $3,332,000, or 18.8 per cent.

Under sustained traffic has been a feature of the monthly reports issued by the Gould lines throughout the past winter, and business has at all times continued in normal volume, notwithstanding the unfavorable weather conditions. Few of the big systems can show larger increases in both gross and net revenues.

McCormick Was Banqueted.

E. O. McCormick, who has more acquaintances probably than any living railroad man, was given a royal send-off in Chicago upon the eve of his departure for San Francisco to become vice president of the Southern Pacific. Many Salt Lake friends will also be glad to extend their congratulations.

Railroad Notes.

T. J. Wyche, chief engineer of the Western Pacific, is in the city on business pertaining to the repairs of the lake line. The Standard Motor Truck company of Pittsburg gets the contract for the trucks for the twenty-four new cars of the Utah Light and Railway company.

The transmission lines from the Devil's Gate plant of the Utah Light and Railway company and Ogden have been completed and by June 1 the plant will be ready for operation.

Several old freight cars were burned at Midvale Sunday, the fire being caused by sparks from a passing engine. The cars were old and the damage trifling.

Lake Shore trainmen have been granted their increase.

James Hedley, who was engineer of the train that carried the late King Edward on his wedding journey, is dead in New York.

The Erie wage dispute is in a critical condition. Many of the other lines have granted what is known as the Baltimore & Ohio increase.

J. M. Sheets and H. J. Booth of Columbus have been appointed receivers for the Hocking Valley.

For a new road the Western Pacific is surely having its share of trouble with the lake.

Railroad men generally read with regret of the proposed abolishment of the Colorado Midland.

Flandro of the Rio Grande is receiving the congratulations of his friends.

Superintendent H. E. Van Housen is proving himself the right man in the right place at the present time in rushing work to completion on the Salt Lake route.

The firemen are having their grievances adjusted in Chicago.

The constitutionality of the federal "hours of service law for railroad employees" will not be passed upon by the supreme court of the United States until next October term.

S. K. Hooper, general passenger agent of the Rio Grande, was in the city Monday, en route to the Pacific coast.

An Ideal Cough Medicine.

"As an ideal cough medicine I regard Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in a class by itself," says Dr. R. A. Wiltshire of Gwynnville, Ind. "I take great pleasure in testifying to the results of Chamberlain's Cough Medicine. In fact, I know of no other preparation that meets so fully the expectations of the most exacting in cases of croup and coughs of children. As it contains no opium, chloroform or morphine it certainly makes a most safe, pleasant and efficacious remedy for the ill it is intended." For sale by all druggists.

IN POLICE COURT

The jury in the case of the state against H. A. and F. G. Lund, charged with malicious mischief, returned a verdict of not guilty and Judge Bowman's court Monday morning. The jury was composed of C. W. Olson, foreman; F. M. Shurtliff, William J. Glade and B. L. Riehl. An hour was required to reach a verdict.

The Lund boys were charged with destroying property at the Westminster college buildings, amounting to $1800, the night of April 4. Shortly after their arrest the Lund cousins admitted that they were in the college buildings the night in question, and that they destroyed property, but they also stated that they did not believe that they had destroyed $1800 worth of property. When arraigned they both pleaded not guilty and on the witness stand denied that they had ever admitted destroying the property.

Harry Williams, charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder, was granted the statutory time in which to enter his plea. Hall of $100 was fixed, in default of which Williams was remanded to the custody of the sheriff. Williams is accused of shooting at Mrs. Fred Beckstrom in her home on Floral avenue.

Jerry Shea, charged with grand larceny, pleaded not guilty, and the hearing of his case was set for June 14. He was remanded to the custody of the sheriff in default of $100 bail. He is accused of picking the pockets of John Flynn at the Lion bar a few days ago.

R. W. Little pleaded guilty to the charge of petit larceny. He stole a bundle of hides from the Denver & Rio Grande depot a few days ago. He will be sentenced this Tuesday.

"BIRDLEG'S" BOND OF $100 IS DECLARED FORFEITED

Because he failed to appear before District Judge Lewis when his case was called for trial Monday, the bond of "Birdleg" Collins, a negro pugilist of local renown, was ordered forfeited. Collins is charged with a violation of the same laws of the state by killing a meadow lark and his bail was fixed at $100. This amount will have to be paid over by his bondsmen to the state.

Bail bonds in the following cases were ordered forfeited by the court: State against M. E. Fitzgerald; state against J. C. Watson; state against Andy Adamson; state against H. E. Houghton; state against Perry St. Clair; state against R. King; state against J. J. Chinn; state against Ethel Brunswick.

Luke Case to Jury Today.

The case of Ellen Collis against James A. Luke, on trial before a jury in District Judge Ritchie's court, will be concluded today. Mrs. Collis alleges that when Luke and Deputy Sheriff Booth came to her home May 13, 1909, to attach a horse and buggy, she tried to prevent Luke from taking the horse, which, she claimed, was her property, and thereupon Luke seized her by the hand and arm and wrenched and twisted her arm and shoulder so that she was painfully injured. She asks damages in the sum of $2500. Luke denies that he assaulted Mrs. Collis.

All Week Silk Sale

This sale is genuine—but all of our sales are, for that matter. Next in importance are the qualities. Every piece of fabric is of the highest excellence. The values are the remarkable feature. Seldom, indeed, have silks of this character been sold so cheap in price.

This is a silk season. The semi-rough weaves are in excellent demand; at the same time, however, soft, clinging silks are much in favor.

Without question it is our best silk sale.
